

Eyeing expansion, RPG names Anant Goenka vice-chairman

The RPG Group, a $4.4 billion conglomerate with interests ranging from tyres to IT, announced the appointment of Anant Goenka as its vice-chairman on Wednesday. Goenka will retain his roles as the vice-chairman of both CEAT and Zensar Technologies.

Entrusted with spearheading the group's digital, sustainability, and innovation agendas, Goenka's appointment is aimed at guiding the next phase of the group's expansion.
