Rahul does it again...

Saregama India Ltd, India's flagship music company, launched Confluence II — the second collaboration of santoor maestro Rahul Sharma and pianist Richard Clayderman — at the J W Marriott the other evening. The album was unveiled in a glittering ceremony by Amitabh Bachchan who, known for his punctuality, arrived on the dot of time, and was seen having a long chat with Rahul's father Pandit Shivkumar Sharma till the other guests arrived.

Post the unveiling of the album, Rahul mesmerised his guests that included Harsh Goenka, Yash Chopra, Adnan Sami, Siddharth Suhas and Kunika Lall with a stunning performance.

This was followed by another fantastic dance performance to the track Dance of the Sufis from the album. Atul Churamani, Vice President, Saregama India Ltd, said, "It gives us immense pleasure to announce the launch of Confluence II. We believe in producing music for the time. Rahul is one of the most precious talents that we have today and we are proud to present his album."

With this album, Rahul and Richard have created an extraordinary musical vision, combining the elegance of Clayderman's piano and Sharma's gentle santoor; the pair transcends musical and cultural boundaries. Most of the tracks are composed by Rahul. The album also has a remixed track of Sharma along with DJ Suketu, who was also present.
