

Zensar Tech unveils new solution

Mumbai, December 2

Zensar Technologies Ltd has launched an infrastructure management services platform for enterprise clients, the technology company said in an exchange filing on Friday. The Vinci platform will reduce operating costs, leading to improved operational efficiency for clients, the company said. The solution, which is powered by automation and machine learning tools, will also help in tracking information in realtime, COGENCIS

